NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. The privacy of your medical information is important to us.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health facts and to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices. We must follow the terms of the notice in effect right now, but we reserve the right to change the terms. If there is a change, we will provide you with a written, revised notice upon request.

As a patient of ours, facts about you must be used and disclosed to other parties for treatment, payment and health care operation. These uses and disclosures require your consent, and include, but are not limited to the following information:

- A release of information contained in financial and/ or medical records;
- Diseases which spread from person to person, such as Human Immune Deficiency Virus (HIV) and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS);
- Drug and/or alcohol abuse;
- Psychiatric diagnosis and treatment records;
- Laboratory test results;
- Medical history;
- Treatment progress;
- Any other related facts.

We may release the above to:

1. Your insurance company, Medicare, Medicaid, or any other person who will pay your bill for services or who will process your bill for services in order for us to receive payment;
2. Any person from a program or an insurance company, who performs billing, quality and risk management tasks, such as insurance auditors and state Risk Management;
3. Any hospital, nursing home or other health care facility where you may have testing done or to which you may be admitted;
4. Any assisted living or personal care facility where you live;
5. Any doctor providing your care;
6. State and/or Federal agencies acting on behalf of programs, such as Medicare, Medicaid, including state surveyors or auditors for any programs;
7. Other health care people to start treatment.

We may contact you to:

1. Provide appointment reminders or missed appointments or news about other health care programs we provide.

We are allowed to use or disclose facts about you without consent in the following situations:

1. In emergency treatment situations, if we try to obtain consent as soon as possible after treatment;
2. Where significant barriers to communicating with you exist and we determine that the consent is clearly inferred from the situation;
3. Where we are required by law to provide treatment and we are unable to obtain consent;
4. Where the use or disclosure is required by law. For example, we must disclose your protected health information to the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services upon request for purposes of determining whether we are in compliance with federal privacy laws;
5. Where we reasonably believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence to a government agency authorized to receive abuse, neglect or domestic violence reports;
6. Health care oversight activities;
7. Certain legal administrative proceedings;
8. Certain law enforcement purposes;
9. To coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors in certain situations (home health, etc);
10. For certain research purposes;
11. To avoid a serious threat to health and safety;
12. For specialized government functions, including military and veterans' activities, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations, correctional institution and custodial situation;
13. For Workers' Compensation purposes;
14. For quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of students; licensing, and conducting or arranging other business activities. For example, we may call you by name when your doctor is ready to see you.

15. To provide you with information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. We may also send you information about products or services that we believe may be beneficial to you.

We are allowed to use or disclose facts about you without consent or authorization provided you are informed in advance and given the chance to agree to, restrict or forbid the disclosure in the following situations:

- 1. To a family member, friend or other person you choose, who may assist in your care or payment for care.

Other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written approval. That approval may be withdrawn in writing at any time, except in limited situations.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right, subject to certain conditions, to:

- 1. Request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of facts about you by filling out our Request form. However, we are not required to agree to the requested restrictions.
- 2. Receive confidential communication of protected health data by giving us another address or means of receiving health data.
- 3. Inspect and copy protected health data by filling out our request form.
- 4. Amend protected health data by filling out our form.
- 5. Receive a list of disclosures made of your protected health data by filling out our request form.
- 6. Obtain a paper copy of this notice upon request, if you agreed to receive this notice by e-mail, fax or website.

COMPLAINTS

You may complain to us and the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services if you believe that your privacy rights have been violated. There will be no retaliation against you for filing a complaint. The complaint must be filed out in writing with us and must state the specific incident(s) including the date, what happened and details of the incident.

For details about filing a complaint with us, contact Susie Fabyunkey, HIPAA Compliant Officer, phone number (931)528-1331.

RELEASE, ASSIGNMENT AND CONSENT

I here by authorize Stephen J. Chapman, D.P.M. d.b.a. Family Foot Center and/or his associates to release to all my insurance companies including Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, CIGNA, United Healthcare, or any other insurance carrier; any information necessary including, but not limited to, the diagnosis, and records of any treatment or examination, photos or surgery rendered to me on any date.

I authorize and request payment to go directly to Stephen J. Chapman, D.P.M. d.b.a. Family Foot Center the amount due for the services rendered to the patient whose name appears below. In the event the insurance reimbursement is paid directly to me, I hereby agree to forward this check to Family Foot Center within seven (7) days or I will be billed and held accountable for the entire amount billed. At time of service, Family Foot Center will attempt to collect all Co-Pays and Deductible. For your convenience, you may pay by Cash, Check, Debit and Credit Card.

I authorize the use of this form in all my insurance admissions, and I permit a copy of this authorization to be as valid as the original.

I hereby authorize FAMILY FOOT CENTER and/or its staff to obtain my individually identifiable health information as required by my insurance company to process any of my claims. I understand that this authorization is voluntary. I understand that the information disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be subject to re-disclosure by the recipient and may no longer be protected by federal or state law.

I acknowledge the Cancellation/Missed Appointment Fee policy of this office. I understand and agree that I may be charged with a $50.00 fee for not canceling my appointment 60 minutes prior to an appointment. Additionally, I understand that I may be required to pay a $50.00 deposit to hold any future appointment time slots, if I miss 3 or more appointments. I will bear the complete financial responsibility for any fee (s) incurred. I acknowledge that repeated missed or late appointments may result in dismissal from this practice.

In the event that this account becomes delinquent, I agree to pay all costs of collection that will include a collection fee of 33% and a Legal collection fee of 42% to be added to my balance and any applicable court costs.
